

WHAT A PASTOR SEES AND HEARS

ITEMS OF PERSONAL INTEREST TO CHURCH PEOPLE.

The Rev. John R. Davies, the new pastor of the Fourth Avenue Presbyterian Church, will begin his labors there-to-morrow. It is nearly two years now since Dr. Howard Crosby died, and the people are looking forward with great interest to their new pastor, who comes to them with a splendid record of work already performed, and with a feeling of courage for the tasks that lie before him.

An interesting work under the name of the Forward movement is going on under the leadership of Mr. Vatman, the Evangelist. It was begun by a company of laymen of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and aims to reach a class of non-church-goers by giving noon-day services, gospel meetings, every evening and Sunday afternoon, and evening services in Union Square Theatre. The weekday services are held in a room fitted up for the purpose at Fifth-ave., and Fifteenth-st. A large number of conversions have already occurred, and the work promises to last for a long time.

It will interest the many friends of the Rev. Dr. Charles F. Deems, of the Church of the Strangers, to know that he is improving from day to day. An article in "Christian Thought" of which Dr. Deems is editor, appears this week over the signature of his son, the Rev. Edward M. Deems, giving a brief history of Dr. Deems' illness and his present condition. The magazine is the organ of the American Institute of Christian Philosophy, of No. 4 Winton Place.

Dr. J. H. McElvane, of the Church of the Covenant, has arranged four Sunday evening services, which will undoubtedly be of considerable public interest. Tomorrow evening there will be a Salvation Army service at 7:15 p. m.; will preach at 8:30 p. m. Evening services led by Colonel Evans, chief of Army Major Towne, chief of the stork work, and other officers. On February 12 religious work in the covenant-houses will be presented by the Rev. W. T. Ewing, of "The Father of the Faithful." February 23, "The Prince and Prince Minister." Strangers welcomed.
